NOTE TO LEADER

Sometimes group discussion goes on for too long or gets off track. Try bringing the group's attention back to the topic by referring to this script and inviting members to continue their conversations after the session.
For example: "I'm glad we all have so many success stories to share about our time with Toastmasters, and I encourage you to continue these conversations after the session. For now, let's get back to discussing your responsibilities on the executive committee."

Session Introduction

My name is <name>. As a training facilitator, I am responsible for conveying the information that club officers need to fulfill their roles. Why? Because well-trained club officers are equipped to enhance club quality, develop and lead successful teams and thrive in the Distinguished Club Program. That last point is reinforced by statistics reported by the District 38 Chief Information Officer, who told us at the time that about $80 \%$ of the clubs who have their officers trained achieve some level of distinguished status.

We're going to look at the three R's. They are:
Role
Responsibilities
Resources

Included in your handout package are the relevant pages from the Club Leadership Handbook, which is a valuable resource for club officers. You can flip to the second handout page now, as that's where we'll be going shortly.

A little about me. [Describe your background in Toastmasters. Highlight the awards you've received, how long you've been a member and in which club officer roles you've served.]

Congratulations on your election! As treasurer you are the club's accountant. You are responsible for managing the bank account, collecting dues, and submitting forms to World Headquarters.

All right, let's jump in. First R! Club Leadership Handbook page 33 in your handout package. I need a volunteer to read the first paragraph under Club Treasurer, as it describes your role.
[Discuss briefly, focusing on the major tasks. Ask for trainee thoughts about the second paragraph.]
[Read the club constitution section (reproduced below) which describes the office.]
The Club Treasurer is responsible for club financial policies, procedures, and controls. The Club Treasurer receives and disburses, with the approval of this club, all club funds; pays to Toastmasters International all financial obligations of this club as they come due; and keeps an accurate account of all transactions. The Club Treasurer shall make financial reports to this club and to the Club Executive Committee quarterly and upon request, and shall transmit the accounts and all undistributed funds to the successor in office at the end of the Club Treasurer's term.

R2 is Responsibilities. There are three of them and they're identified under the headings on pages 33 and 34 . We'll go through them quickly and your homework assignment is to review them thoroughly. If you have questions about these, ask! Ask me today, ask someone with Club Treasurer experience, ask your area director, but ask!

* Oversee Accounts [Poll: how many clubs represented by trainees prepare a budget at the start of the year? How about make a regular financial report at club and/or executive committee meetings? Review all this. Tax item not applicable to us.]
* Collect Membership Dues Payments [Review this. If club uses FreeToastHost, the built-in dues management allows sending of renewal statements and maintaining a record of member payments.] Timely payment of dues is both important to the club and a sign of professionalism on the part of the member. You should familiarize yourself with the Membership Management section (where dues payments are made) in Club Central. Pros and cons of the new Self-Pay feature.
* Pay Bills [Review this. Are trainees familiar with monthly club statement from T.I. (shows record of dues paid)? This statement is also available via Club Central in Club Financials section.]

Your responsibilities are in three categories as you can see under the Summary of Responsibilities heading on page 34 .

Before Club Meetings: [Read aloud.] This report can and should be simple! An example: "We received N dollars in dues, reimbursed Joe N dollars for expenses, and sent N dollars to T.I. for dues payments. Our current account balance is N dollars."

During Club Meetings: You collect dues from members and perhaps reimburse members who have submitted receipt for approved expenditures. At the appropriate part of the meeting, usually the business session at the start or end of the meeting, present your financial report. Regular reporting like this to the members keeps them abreast of club health and conveys to guests a sense of professionalism.

Outside Club Meetings: [Review all of this except inapplicable items 2 and 3. Poll: how many trainees come from clubs which perform an annual audit? Review the "Items to Prepare for the Audit Committee" section and describe how the audit is performed: Receipts, deposit slips and dues statements are compared to check book register and bank statements. Review the examples of club expenses in the box on the center of the page.]

Common Scenarios Club Treasurers Face: [either review some of this material quickly or let it be homework].

R3 is Resources. Your first resource is right here, right now. Officer training. Even if your club elects officers on an annual basis I strongly recommend you attend the summer and winter training. Get to as many sessions as you can, not so you can hear the same lecture over and over again, but so that you can hear from and exchange ideas with as many of your fellow treasurers and Toastmasters as possible. It's the N word: Networking. If you turn to page 36 , you'll see a list of links to resources on the T.I. site. If you go to the Shop part of the T.I. site and type in those item numbers, you'll be able to either purchase them or download (most of them) at no cost. Another resource would perhaps be the Club Treasurer who preceded you. Visits to other clubs are also a great way to see how your counterparts elsewhere do their job.

Let's summarize by presenting your homework assignment.

1. Attend as many officer training sessions as you can.
2. Read pages 33 through 36 in the Club Leadership Handbook.
3. Check out the resources on page 36.
4. Consider a spreadsheet in addition to the checkbook register to keep track of credits and debits.
5. If your club does not currently have the Club Treasurer make a brief report at club meetings and/or executive committee meetings, share with the other officers your desire to do so.
6. If your club does not currently prepare an annual budget and conduct an annual audit, share the importance of doing so with the other officers.

Time for Q&A.

Distribute evaluation form to encourage feedback for improvement. Trainees should turn this in at the sign-in desk before they leave.
